About this Session

Session Takeaways

- There is no one type of school shooter.
- There is no one cause of school shootings.
- Rampage attacks result from a complex combination of biological, psychological, and social factors.

Killing Up Close

- “The resistance to the close-range killing of one’s own species is so great that it is often sufficient to overcome the cumulative influences of the instinct for self-protection, the coercive forces of leadership, the expectancy of peers, and the obligation to preserve the lives of comrades. . . Most simply cannot or will not do it.”
 - On Killing, by Lt. Col. Dave Grossman

What is wrong with the perpetrators?

 - Psychopathic, psychotic, traumatized
- Biology
 - Genetic/developmental/medical issues

Psychology

Three categories

Psychopathic Shooters

- Entitled and easily enraged

Eric Harris

Eric Harris: Extreme Narcissism

- “My belief is that if I say something, it goes. I am the law, if you don’t like it, you die.”

Eric Harris: Rejection of Morality

- “‘Morals’ is just another word.”
- “I really don’t give a good god damn about what you think is ‘right’ and what is ‘wrong.’”
- “There’s no such thing as True Good or True evil.”

Eric Harris: Lack of Empathy

- “Kill all retards. . . People spend millions of dollars on saving the lives of retards, and why. I don’t buy that shit like ‘oh, he’s my son, though!’ so the fuck what, he ain’t normal, kill him. Put him out of his misery. He is only a waste of time and money.”

Eric Harris: Sadistic

- “I want to tear a throat out with my own teeth like a pop can. I want to gut someone with my hand, to tear a head off and rip out the heart and lungs from the neck, to stab someone in the gut, shove it up to their heart, and yank the fucking blade out of their rib cage! I want to grab some weak little freshman and just tear them apart like a wolf, show them who is god. Strangle them, squish their head, bite their temples in the skull, rip off their jaw, rip off their collar bones, break their arms in half and twist them around, the lovely sounds of bones cracking and flesh ripping, ahhh...so much to do and so little chances.”

Eric Harris: Impression Management

- “If [I] have to cheat and lie to everyone then that’s fine. . . I have confidence in my ability to deceive people.”
- "I could convince them that I'm going to climb Mount Everest, or I have a twin brother growing out of my back. I can make you believe anything.”

Eric Harris: Impression Management

- Apology letter to owner of van he robbed:
 - “I strongly feel I owe you an apology and explanation. . . I am truly sorry for what I have done.”
- Teacher’s reaction to Eric’s essay about his arrest:
 - “It’s not one action that makes a person. I would trust you in a heartbeat.”

Eric Harris: Journal entry

- “Isn’t America supposed to be the land of the free? How come, if I’m free, I can’t deprive a stupid fucking dumbshit from his possessions if he leaves them sitting in the front seat of his fucking van out in plain sight and in the middle of fucking nowhere on a Frifuckingday night. . . Fucker should be shot.”

Eric Harris: Impression Management

- Parent of a friend
 - “The ultimate little gentleman.”
- Teacher comments
 - “Positive attitude and good cooperation.”
 - “Strong interest and participation.”
 - “Eric is doing awesome!”
- Probation officer (early termination, 2/3/99)
 - “Really nice young man. Seems responsible and remorseful. . .
Prognosis: Good. Eric is a very bright young man who is likely to succeed in life.”

Psychopathic: Their Place in the World

- World does not provide recognition/satisfaction
- They are chronically frustrated
- They deserve better
- This is an injustice
- Resentment → Rage

Psychotic Shooters

- Hallucinations
- Delusions

 - Thought government might have put computer chip in his brain

Kip Kinkel: Anguish and Rage

- “I don’t know who I am. . . I hate myself for what I’ve become. . . I am repulsive. . . My eyes hurt. They hurt so bad. They feel like they are trying to crawl out of my head. Why aren’t I normal?”
- “I am so full of rage that I feel I could snap at any moment. . . I sound so pitiful. People would laugh at this if they read it. I hate being laughed at. But they won’t laugh after they’re scraping parts of their parents, sisters, brothers, and friends from the wall of my hate. . . Please. Someone, help me. . . Oh God, I am so close to killing people. So close.”

Kip Kinkel: Psychotic

- “I have just killed my parents! . . . I’m so sorry. I am a horrible son. I wish I had been aborted. I destroy everything I touch. . . My head just doesn’t work right. God damn these VOICES inside my head. I want to die. I want to be gone. But I have to kill people. I don’t know why. I am so sorry! Why did God do this to me?”

Psychotic: Their Place in the World

- There's something wrong with them
- They don't measure up
- They can't function in the world
- This isn't fair

Traumatized Shooters

- March 21, 2005
- Age 16
- Killed: 9
- Wounded: 7
- Traumatized

Jeffrey Weise: Traumatized

- “My mom used to abuse me a lot when I was little. She would hit me with anything she could get her hands on, she used to drink excessively, too. She would tell me I was a mistake, and she would say so many things that it’s hard to deal with them or think of them without crying.”

Jeffrey Weise: Traumatized

- “Most people have never dealt with people who have faced the kind of pain that makes you physically sick at times, makes you so depressed you can’t function, makes you so sad and overwhelmed with grief that eating a bullet or sticking your head in a noose seems welcoming.”

Jeffrey Weise: Traumatized

- “I had went through a lot of things in my life that had driven me to a darker path than most choose to take. I split the flesh on my wrist with a box opener, painting the floor of my bedroom with blood I shouldn’t have spilt. After sitting there for what seemed like hours...I had the revelation that this was not the path.”

Jeffrey Weise: Traumatized

- “So fucking naïve man, so fucking naïve. Always expecting change when I know nothing ever changes. I’ve seen mothers choose their man over their own flesh and blood. I’ve seen others choose alcohol over friendship. I sacrifice no more for others, part of me has fucking died and I hate this shit. I’m living every man’s nightmare and that single fact is kicking my ass. I really must be fucking worthless. This place never changes, it never will. Fuck it all.”

Jeffrey Weise: Traumatized

- “16 years of accumulated rage suppressed by nothing more than brief glimpses of hope, which have all but faded to black. I can feel the urges within slipping through the cracks, the leash I can no longer hold.”

Traumatized: Their Place in the World

Elliot Rodger: Sadism

- “I have lived a life of pain and suffering, and it was time to bring that pain to people who actually deserve it. I will cut them, flay them, strip all the skin off their flesh, and pour boiling water all over them while they are still alive, as well as any other form of torture I could possibly think of. When they are dead, I will behead them and keep their heads in a bag. . . Once they see all of their friend’s heads roll onto the street, everyone will fear me as the powerful god I am.”

Sadism = Self-Elevation

- “He is sadistic because he feels impotent, unalive, and powerless. He tries to compensate for this lack by having power over others, transforming the worm he feels himself to be into a god.”

People like Elliot Rodger, Vester Flanagan, The Columbine kids, Adam Lanza and Seung Cho. Just like me those people were denied everything they deserved, everything they wanted. Though we may have been born bad, society left us no recourse, no way to be good. I have been forced to align myself with demonic forces.”

His face splashed across every screen, his name across the lips of every person on the planet, all in the course of one day. Seems the more people you kill, the more you’re in the limelight.”
 - August 31, 2015

Fame-Seeking

Threat Assessment

Responding to Warning Signs

Barriers to Reporting

- Denial: General
 - It can't happen in our town/school.
- Denial: Specific
 - He would never do it.
 - He's too young/small.
 - He's from a good family.
 - He's just joking.

Follow Where the Evidence Leads

- Case at a high school
- Multiple students involved
- Evidence was gathered
- Administrators struggled to take the threat seriously

Follow Where the Evidence Leads

- “They weren’t isolated. . . They did not fit what we thought was the profile for the kind of student that would plan something like this. They were engaged in school. They were involved in a sport. They seemed to have a large base of friends. They even had some popularity amongst the student body.”

Follow Where the Evidence Leads

- “They looked like normal kids. I mean literally just looked like normal kids. They were on the wrestling team! . . . Looking at them, I will say this; when I heard it was the one kid who I had met before, I was like no way! What are you kidding? No way!”

Warning Signs

- Warning signs are comments and behaviors that indicate someone is planning an attack
 - Leakage and threats
 - Attack-related behaviors

Explicit Threats

- Jesse Osborne told a boy, “When I come back with a rifle, you’re going to be the one I shoot.”
- Luke Woodham told his ex-girlfriend he would “put a bullet” in her head.
- Brenda Spencer told a classmate “that she ‘would blow his brains out with a gun.’”

Implied Threats

- Robert Flores: “You better watch your back if you’re going to flunk me.”
- Wayne Lo: “I have the power to bring the whole school to its knees.”

- Mitchell Johnson: “He told me yesterday that all the people who broke up with him. . . he was going to come to school tomorrow and shoot them.”

Indirect Leakage

- Evan Ramsey told a peer he was plotting an “evil day.”
- Caleb Sharpe gave notes to friend saying he was going to do “something stupid” that would get him killed or jailed.
- Bryan Oliver warned friends not to go to school because “something bad” was going to happen.

- Obtaining the necessary weapon(s)
- Practicing with firearms
- Experimenting with explosives
- Recruiting an accomplice

Evidence of Imminence

- “We will hijack a hell of a lot of bombs and crash a plane into NYC.”
- “I have a goal to destroy as much as possible. . . I want to burn the world.”
- “I say “KILL MANKIND” no one should survive.”

“First we will go to the house of --- and --- in the morning before school starts. . . We go in, we silently kill each inhabitant and then pin down --- and ---. Then take our sweet time pissing on them, spitting on them, and just torturing the hell out of them. Once we are done there we set time bombs to burn the houses down. . . then get totally prepared and during A-lunch we go in and park in our spots. With sunglasses on we start carrying in all of our bags of terrorism and anarchism shit into our table. Being very casual and silent about it. It’s all for a science/band/English project or something. Then, we sit down, play some pump-up music, light a $50 stogie, and get ready to start throwing out the first wave of crickets [small bombs]. Then we light them and throw them as far as we can. . . Then I open fire. . . Then if we can we go upstairs and go to each classroom and pick off fuckers at our will.”

Michael Carneal: Leakage

- “He told us that he was gonna come to school and start shooting people. He kept saying that Monday was the day of reckoning.”
- He warned friends to avoid the lobby on Monday morning.
- A peer reported that Carneal said, “the hypocrites in the prayer group were going to go down.”
- At least five students saw Carneal with a gun in school.
